Claim to the Toddy Revenue of Inam Venkatapura village and of its Dakle Krishnarajapura village in the Pavagada Taluk.

Eq. Commissioner's no 4675/2914 dy 28th January 03 & 13th Febry

Note.

Asli Venkatapura with its Dakla villages of (1) Krishnarajapura and (2) Chowlapura was granted as sarva Inam to one Srinivasachar under Sanad dated 30th July 1830. The Sanad concedes toddy revenue to the Inamdar. There are two toddy shops, one at Venkatapura and the other at Krishnarajapura, and these shops have proves attached to them. Under the authority of the above Sanad and long enjoyment the present Inamdars claim the toddy revenue of these villages. In the investigation of the claims, the villages of Venkatapura and Krishnarajapura are treated quite independent of each other i.e. as two different claims under the following circumstances

Krishnarajapura was formerly a Kayamgutta village and was in the possession and enjoyment of one Krishnamachar, a close relative of Sreenivasachar the Inamdar of Venkatapura. Somehow or other without reference to Kayamgutta tenure Krishnarajapura was merged in Sarva Inam and treated as Dakla village. When Venkatapura was alienated to Sreenivasachar in 1830. Subsequently Krishnarajapura was transferred to Krishnamachar by Sreenivasachar as Serva. Inam.

Under the one and the same samaad referred to above the Inamdars of both Venkatapura and Krishnarajapura villages claim their toddy revenue. Mr. S. Paramasiva Iyer who held the enquiry has recognised the claims to the revenue of Venkatapura but not of Krishnarajapura, stating that the latter has not been recognised as a Kayamgutta village entitled to shendi revenue, nor is it shown under Venkatapura in the Quit Rent Register, and that the claim has been based only on the undoubted long enjoyment But the Deputy Commissioner differing from the Assistant Commissioner holds that the claims to the revenue of both the villages are established inasmuch as the toddy revenue of Krishnarajapura is being enjoyed by the Kayamputtadars, who are now Inamdars as well, and the toddy revenue of the whole village is alienated in favour of Inamdars.

The Secretary to the Government of General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

In submitting herewith the records of enquiry relating to the Doddy Revenue of Inam Venkatapura village and of its Dakle Krishnarajapura village in the Pavagada taluk, together with an extract from the Inam Quit-Rent Register, I have the honor to state that the Inam Settlement Register received for reference from the Superintendent of Inam Settlement in Mysore, shows that the asli village Venkatapura was settled along with its Dakle villages Krishnarajapura, Chowlapura and Srinivasa-pura. The Sanad of the village an authenticated Copy of which is on the files, includes Krishnarajapura. In the assets of the village enumerated enumerated in the Sannad, Shandikhane Bab is specified. In the ten years revenue mentioned in the Inam settlement Register, "Abkari" is included, as per particulars below:—

	Abkari Rupees
1895	111 — " — "
1860	111 — " — "
1861	156 — " — "
1862	252 — " — "
1863	126 — " — "
1864	126 — " — "
1865	114 — " — "
1866	120 — " — "
1867	120 — " — "
1868	120 — " — "
Total	1356 — " — "
Average	135 — 9 — 7

The Inam Assistant who investigated the case of this village, states—"From the table, it will be seen that the grantees enjoy all items of income in the village. The Abkari consists of Toddy alone, the other item of Arrack being resumed since the introduction of the Sudder Distillery system". Under the head — "Items of revenue granted to the Inamdars", in the Quit Rent Register, abkari is included. There are two shops in this village, one at Asali Venkatapura, and the other at Krishnarajapura; and there are also date groves. I am of opinion that the Inamdars are entitled to excise Revenue from Toddy,

Memo submitted in re the claim of the Jodidar of the below noted Village to the Toddy revenue thereof.

Krishnapura (Khayamgutha
not formally recognised by the Inam superintendent

This Village grew out of a block of waste land adjoining Venkatapura and its hamlet Chowlapura. The waste land was granted on Sruga tenure to Krishnamachar father of the present owner and when it was reported in 1828 that he had built a Village, The same was directed to be treated as a Kayamgutta Village and an annual gutta of 10 Varahas I hana was imposed thereon. In 1830 Venkatapura was granted as Sarvadaman to Srinivasachar and in this there is mention of a Dakka Village called Krishnarajpur which is undoubtedly the Kayam
- gutta Village obtained by

Enclosure
to Encl. 1.

Krishnamachar. It is clear that the Nainee of Krishnarajpuram was given to the Kayamgutta Village Subsequent to its grant in 1828, but there is nothing to show why without any reference to either the Kayamgutta dar or the gutta due to Government on this Separate Village, it was absorbed by implication into the New Sarva Inam Village. It is however clear that Krishnamma Chari's descendants have been maintaining their possession of this Village in spite of an attempt of the Sarva Inamdar to dispossess them. In a Suit filed by the Inamdar of Venkatapura the Kayamgutta dar pleaded his right under the Kayam gutta grant and a subsequent gift by the Sarva Inam/dar.

Reading the Various documents together and even supposing that a Kayam gutta tenure formally created could be merged in a Sarva Inam grant obviously framed in the absence of full information as to the area comprised, all that the Sarva Inam grant could be held to have conferred is the right to the annual Government Gootta of which the Inamdar is constituted the transferee.
The Inamdar had no right to convert a Kayam gutta tenure granted by Government into Sarva Inam and all that his gift can accomplish is the permanent & alienation of the gutta amount in favour of Kayamgoottadar transferred to him by Government.

The Government are not bound by any acts of the parties as between themselves and it is certain there was no toddy Shop in this Village when the Village was alienated but that Some time in the forties, the Kayam guttadar who has been proprietor as a Sarva Mandar in View of the gift by the Mandar of Venkatapura opened a Shop in the Village and has been in Enjoyment of the produce Of the Same for the past nearly fifty years, the latest evidence of the date of Enjoyment referring to the year 1847-48.

I prefer this case for the Orders of Government under

(2.) 9

Rule 20, as this Village has not been, as it should have been, recognised as a Kayam-Gutta Village not entitled to Shendi Revenue nor has it been shown under Venkatapura in the Quit rent register and the Inamdars claim as against Government is based on only undoubted long enjoyment

7-3-1902 Signed

This is a Dumkla village of Asli Venkatapur Before the Grant of the Venkatapur Village as Sarva Inam this was granted on Kayam gutta tenure to the Ancestor of the present holder It was subsequently merged in

in Sarva Inam. The Inamdar has been granted the right of Excise revenue over Venkatapur.

The Dakkla Village-holder being a close relative of the Inamdar the latter in his turn granted the Dakkla Village as Inam. Besides a shop in the Asli Village of Venkatapur there seems to have been a shop in the Dakkla Village of Krishnapur also. The revenue of the Shop as also of the grove in the Village is being enjoyed by the Kayam suttadars who are now Inamdars as well. As the Excise revenue of the whole Village is alienated in favour of the Inamdars, I think the present claimant is entitled to the revenue of the shop and the grove in the Dakkla Village. This matter
